Description

This cozy apartment is located in the charming town of Navacerrada, part of the northwestern region of Madrid and nestled in the heart of the Sierra de Guadarrama. Built in 1976, this apartment combines functionality and comfort in a unique natural setting. With a floor area of 77 m², this property features two bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a separate living room, making it an ideal space for couples, small families, or even as a second home.

The apartment stands out for its brightness, with a south-facing orientation that fills it with natural light for much of the day. It is in excellent condition and features stoneware tile floors, built-in closets, a clothesline, and a reinforced door—features that add both functionality and security to the property. As an added bonus for the warmer months, the property includes a communal garden and pool, perfect for enjoying pleasant days outdoors. However, it does not have an elevator, garage, or terrace.

Navacerrada is a paradise for those seeking a peaceful life without sacrificing the comforts of modern living. Surrounded by nature and just a short walk from the Navacerrada reservoir and the town center, this unique location offers a perfect balance between tranquility and entertainment. Hiking, cycling, and water sports are just some of the many activities you can enjoy in this idyllic setting. In addition, there are numerous restaurants
